

LET'S BE FRIENDS

What advice would you give the following people to deal with their family feuds?

Clare can't find her favourite jumper. She's convinced that her sister, Elli, has borrowed it. However, when Clare asked her if she knew where it was, Elli said she didn't. So yesterday Clare went looking for her jumper in Elli's room. The problem is, Elli caught her and, well, things erupted! They haven't spoken to each other since (and the jumper still has not been found).

Chris is fed up that his brother Paul never helps out around the house. Their parents are really busy and Chris does his best to help out, but whenever he asks Paul to help, Paul says he's busy and then locks himself in his room and plays on his Xbox. Chris is angry with Paul for not helping and he's angry with his parents for not making Paul help him.

Yesterday, Kate found out that her brother Tom not only went into her bedroom but also found her diary and read it! But that's not all he did; he then posted some of what he read on his Facebook page. What he wrote was about Kate's best friend Sarah, and now Sarah's not speaking to her. Kate is so upset that she just doesn't know what to do.

Read Genesis 32:1–12. Jacob is worried about meeting up with his brother after so many years and so much conflict between them (read Genesis 27 to remember why!). What would you advise him to do?

Read Genesis 32:13–21 to find out what he actually did!

Do you think it will work? — YES / NO

Check out Genesis 33 to find out whether it worked or not!
